4. The disposal of the daily garbage, such as paper, glass, trash bags (and all that belongs to it according to the municipal regulations) should be made by the tenants and does not belong to the weekly cleaning.
5. All taxes and contributions required by the competent authorities concerning the rented house will be borne by the landlord. The taxes and contributions related to the occupation of the house and which, according to the law, should be borne by the tenants, will also be paid by the landlord.

Article 4. Payment

1. The amounts due by the tenants to the landlord by virtue of this article should be transferred in advance every month, at the latest by day 24 of each month preceding the month in which the rent is due, without any reduction or settlement, to the bank account number 10.49.08.696 at the Rabobank te Maastricht belonging to R.J.M. Philips.
2. The tenants should give their respective banks a permanent order of payment so that the amounts mentioned above can be paid automatically each month.
3. It is strictly forbidden for the tenants to use the deposit to pay part or all of the last month rent. Each month should be paid at all times.
4. The landlord reserves himself the right to claim the due rent(s) and indemnities in cash.

Article 5. Condition of the rented good and surrender:

1. By signing this rental agreement, the tenants declare to have received the rented units as well as the furniture/belongings referred to in article 1 of this contract in good condition and undamaged, and that they will return them upon expiry of this agreement also in good condition and undamaged.

2. Before leaving the house, the tenants shall invite the landlord and give him the opportunity to inspect the rented premises as well as the furniture together with the tenants.
3. Should it appear that cleaning is necessary, the landlord is entitled to charge cleaning costs to the tenants upon termination of the rental agreement for a maximum amount of € 240.

Article 6. Penalties:

1. On the ending date of the rental agreement the tenants shall vacate the house and take with them all their personal belongings.
2. Any tenant that has not left the rented premises on time pursuant to the previous paragraph owes the landlord a penalty amounting to € 200 for every single day that he/she is still occupying the premises. Furthermore the said tenant is obliged to pay any damage caused to the landlord as a result of his/her presence in the house, including therein the costs of a substitution house for the tenant and his relatives and his personal belongings.

Article 7. Instructions for the use of the rented premises:

1. The rented premises are exclusively meant to be inhabited by the tenants themselves. Subletting is strictly forbidden.
2. Tenants are not allowed to keep pets in the rented premises.
3. Tenants are not allowed to affix posters on the street side.
4. The tenants commit themselves expressively not to cause any nuisance to the neighbours, in particular not to cause noise, smell, etc. Moreover, the tenants commit themselves to avoid making any kind of noise after 10 p.m.
5. Tenants are not allowed to make alterations to the rented premises.
6. It is forbidden to park bicycles in the patio and in the house.
7. Goods can be stored in the basement during the lease period, but should be removed at the end of the said period. Any goods that are still present in the basement at the end of the rental agreement will be removed at the expenses of the tenants. The landlord can not be held responsible for any damage suffered by the tenant as a result thereof.
8. It is forbidden to make fire in the fire place in the living room

Article 8. Maintenance:

1. The tenants shall at all times use and maintain the house with all reasonable and usual care.
2. The tenants shall ensure the normal daily maintenance of the rented premises, including the curtains/lamps and locks, the switchers, the sanitary installations, the tubing, sewer and the inventory.
3. Thee landlord is not obliged to any maintenance and can not be held liable for any shortcoming in the maintenance.

Article 9. Liability and insurance:

1. The tenants are responsible to the landlord for any damage caused to the rented premises and to the content thereof during the lease period - whatever the cause - unless they can prove that this liability does not rest on them.
2. The tenants commit themselves to take up an insurance with a well-known Dutch company and to keep it for the whole duration of the rental contract in order to cover the liability referred to in the previous paragraph. The tenants shall provide the landlord with a copy of the insurance police and of its terms and conditions.
3. The tenants shall give the landlord any indemnity that they should receive from the insurance company as coverage for any damage caused to the rented premises and to the belongings put at their disposal by the landlord.

Article 10. Deposit:

1. At the time the lease is signed each one of the tenants shall pay the landlord a deposit amounting to Euro 650,- (six hundred and fifty euros)
2. The landlord is entitled to use part or whole of this deposit to cover any debt due to him by the tenant by virtue of this contract.

Article 11. Other provisions:

1. The tenants accept the rented premises and the furniture in their present condition known to them. The landlord does not guarantee the quality of such furniture/belongings and accepts in this regard no responsibility for any shortcoming of the rented premises/furniture/belongings.
2. The landlord is not responsible for whatever damage caused to the tenants as a result of the use by the tenants of the rented premises and its furniture. In this respect, the tenants hold the landlord harmless from any claim from third parties.

3. The landlord is not liable for any damage of whatever nature that the tenants could suffer, should the tenants for whatever reason not enjoy the peaceful use of the rented units, or should the rented premises not be used for the use for which they are rented.

Article 12. Use of the telephone and Internet

1. Parties are aware of the fact that the telephone connection with number 043-8500847 is registered under the name of the landlord.
 - a. The tenants shall keep a record of their own use of the telephone;
 - b. The tenants shall calculate their costs on the basis of the invoice sent by the telephone company and shall pay every month their own telephone costs to the landlord.
 - c. All costs for late payment or disconnection of the telephone line shall be borne by the tenants.
 - d. The landlord is entitled to use the telephone deposit to cover costs resulting from non compliance with the aforesaid obligations;
 - e. Article 9 paragraph 2 is equally applicable to this deposit.

Article 13 Final payment of the water and energy invoice

1. Regarding the costs for energy and water referred to in article 3 par. 1, c), the parties make the following arrangements:
 - a. such costs are all costs for the whole house which are mentioned in the final invoices of the water and energy company made during the rental period;
 - b. each tenant individually owes the landlord an equal part of these costs;
 - c. after 30 June 2014 the landlord will make the final calculation of these costs and will send the tenants an e-mail giving them a detailed overview of the costs;
 - d. the landlord will claim the final amount due from the tenants;
 - e. the landlord is entitled to use the deposit to cover any amounts due in this respect.

Article 14 Divisibility of obligations

Each individual tenant is principally liable for compliance with this agreement by all the tenants, unless it can be deducted reasonably and fairly or it results from the law that each individual tenant is liable to the landlord for unequal parts of the agreement.

Article 15. General provisions, choice of domicile, forum and law:

1. Unless otherwise indicated in this agreement, this agreement is subject to the Algemene Bepalingen Huurovereenkomst Woonruimte (General provisions Housing Rental agreement), according to the model fixed by the Real Estate Council (Model door de Raad voor Onroerende Zaken) on 30 July 2003 and deposited on 31 July 2003 at the Registrar Office of the Court in The Hague and registered there under number 74/2003. A copy of these provisions is attached to the present rental agreement.

2. For the execution of the present agreement the tenants indicate as their domicile the address of the rented premises.
3. This agreement is subject to Dutch law.
4. Only the judge of the arrondissement Maastricht has competence to hear in first instance any dispute and claim resulting from this rental agreement.
